The aim of our project is to include the long-term unemployed (with an emphasis on women) in the processes of online education and / or hybrid teaching through the development of an innovative digital tool that will enable them to acquire the competencies needed in the labor market

Target groups: 5 partner organizations, min. 200 unemployed persons (60% women), 10 legal entities involved in the implementation of the virtual practice

Results:

- Developed web application with online courses for the education of the unemployed
- Developed manual that will contain instructions on how to use the application, but will also inform the target group about the benefits of online education (digital manual)
- Designed and developed 10 online courses that will be constructed for the long-term unemployed and will be able to adapt to specific groups

Project duration: 01.11.2021. – 01.05.2023.

Project is financed by Erasmus + program in the amount of 142.406,00 EUR.
